Real Estate Brokerage Relationships

WEIGAND
AUCTION

Kansas law requires real estate licensees to provide the following information about brokerage relationships to prospective sellers and buyers at the first practical opportunity. This brochure is provided for informational purposes and does not create an obligation to use the broker's services.

Types of Brokerage Relationships: A real estate licensee may work with a buyer or seller as a seller's agent, buyer's agent or transaction broker. The disclosure of the brokerage relationship between all licensees involved and the seller and buyer must be included in any contract for sale and in any lot reservation agreement.

Seller's Agent: The seller's agent represents the seller only, so the buyer may be either unrepresented or represented by another agent. In order to function as a seller's agent, the broker must enter into a written agreement to represent the seller. Under a seller agency agreement, all licensees at the brokerage are seller's agents unless a designated agent is named in the agreement. If a designated agent is named, only the designated agent has the duties of a seller's agent and the supervising broker of the designated agent functions as a transaction broker.

Buyer's Agent: The buyer's agent represents the buyer only, so the seller may be either unrepresented or represented by another agent. In order to function as a buyer's agent, the broker must enter into a written agreement to represent the buyer. Under a buyer agency agreement, all licensees at the brokerage are buyer's agents unless a designated agent is named in the agreement. If a designated agent is named, only the designated agent has the duties of a buyer's agent and the supervising broker of the designated agent functions as a transaction broker.

A Transaction Broker: is not an agent for either party and does not advocate the interests of either party. A transaction brokerage agreement can be written or verbal.

Duties and Obligations: Agents and transaction brokers have duties and obligations under K.S.A. 58-30,106, 58-30,107, and 58-30,113, and amendments thereto. A summary of those duties are:

An agent, either seller's agent or buyer's agent, is responsible for performing the following duties:

- promoting the interests of the client with good faith, loyalty, and fidelity
- presenting all offers in a timely manner
- accounting for all money and property received
- disclosing to the other party all adverse facts actually known by the agent
- protecting the clients confidences, unless the utmost disclosure is required
- advising the client to obtain expert advice
- disclosing to the client all adverse material facts actually known by the agent material

The transaction broker is responsible for performing the following duties:

- protecting the confidences of both parties
- presenting all offers in a timely manner
- suggesting that the parties obtain expert advice
- keeping the parties fully informed
- disclosing to the parties all adverse material facts actually known by the transaction broker
- exercising reasonable skill and care
- advising the parties regarding the transaction
- accounting for all money and property received
- assisting the parties in closing the transaction

Agents and Transaction Brokers have no duty to:

- conduct an independent inspection of the property for the benefit of any party
- conduct an independent investigation of the buyer's financial condition
- independently verify the accuracy or completeness of statements made by the seller, buyer, or any qualified third party.

General Information: Each real estate office has a supervising broker or branch broker who is responsible for the office and the affiliated licensees assigned to the office. Below are the names of the licensee providing this brochure, the supervising/branch broker, and the real estate company.

FAIR HOUSING COMPLIANCE

Buyer letters are a tactic used by some buyers in an attempt to stand out to a seller. While such letters may seem harmless, these communications can raise Fair Housing compliance concerns.

J.P. Weigand & Sons Inc. strongly recommends that before any letters are read for consideration of an offer that the Seller(s) consider the following:

*A decision to accept or reject an offer should be based on objective criteria only (price, terms etc..).

*Buyer letters may contain personal information and reveal characteristics of the buyer, such as race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity, handicap, familial status, age, or national origin which could then be used, knowingly or through unconscious bias, as an unlawful basis for seller's decision to accept or reject an offer.

Our policy is that we will not open or read any buyer letters but will deliver to Seller upon request. Our goal is to protect our clients from any Fair Housing liability and create best practices that do not violate the Fair Housing Act.
